Vicki Schwartz McCoy, flute, has worked for Ohio 4-H for many years, serving as the county 4-H educator of Washington County (Ohio), a District Specialist, and now the Associate State Leader and Volunteer Specialist for Ohio 4-H. Before beginning her career, she studied flute at Penn State University while she earned a BS in Biology and a M.Ed. in Counselor Education. She has performed with the Rockwell International Band in Columbus, the Doug Hess Band, and presently with the Evergreen Orchestra. She performs upon request at area churches as soloist and accompanist with vocal and handbell choirs.

Andrew Colvin, percussion, is a controls engineer at Cytec Industries. While earning a BS in Chemical Engineering at West Virginia University, he was a member of the drumline in the Pride of West Virginia Mountaineer Marching Band. Andrew accompanies the choir ensembles at Stout UMC in Parkersburg and is the drummer for the local rock band The Fossils.
